Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 101

1. 35 U.S.C. 101 reads as follows:

Whoever invents or discovers any new and useful process, machine, manufacture, or composition of matter, or any new and useful improvement thereof, may obtain a patent therefor, subject to the conditions and requirements of this title.

Claims 32, 38, 35, 41, 44 and 47 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 101 because these claims merely recite the computer program being executable by a computer device or devices to perform a radio transmission method for use in carrying out transmission and reception of data between stations, but there isn't any computer device or devices supported in the body of the claim. Therefore, these claims are not patentable under 35 U.S.C 101.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

2. Claim 12 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

Claim 12 is a hybrid claim. This is because claim 12 is a system claim which dependent upon claim 1 which is method claim. Appropriate correction and/or clarification is required.

3. Claims 29, 12, 36; 30, 21, 37; 33; 34; 39, 42; 40, 43; 45 and 46 are allowable.
4. Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
